YFS has a long history of working with and empowering First Nations peoples. The YFS Cultural Framework sets out our continuing commitment and the actions we will take as a community member, a service provider and an employer to back First Nations peoples to achieve their aspirations and thrive

Primary purpose

The Behaviour Change Facilitator primarily works in a group setting with male perpetrators of domestic and family violence to provide intervention, through critical dialogue within the group process. The role also provides individual sessions/assessment as required and court support on a rotational basis.

Key accountabilities

Service delivery

- Provide intake and risk assessment, and orientation and progress interviews with a clear focus on the safety of women and children, upheld through perpetrator accountability with attitudinal and behavioural change.
- Co-facilitate men's intervention groups within our program logic and practice framework.
- Collaborate on the design, delivery and evaluation of men's groups that address the referral problem of men's violence to women and children and respond to client needs and the referral demands of the community. This includes an ongoing review of risk assessment and management, program content, program policies and procedures.
- Working with men using motivational interviewing and critical dialogue principles, to promote critical reflection on Men's use of violence, abuse and the beliefs that drive this behaviour.
- Participate in weekly risk meetings and provide information regarding progress of the group, on-going assessment of risk and safety, risk management and development and review of intervention plans for the man.
- Provide information about and referrals for other related issues, such as mental health, and drug and alcohol problems.
- Attend Beenleigh Court and provide male respondents who attend for domestic violence with information on court processes and the Responsible Men program.

External relationships

- Build and foster collaborative partnerships with other agencies and stakeholders to provide and maintain effective, accountable services for clients, and report on developments.
- Build a network of contacts in other relevant organisations and ensure YFS's image and reputation is maintained.
- Work effectively with the Logan High Risk Team (HRT) to help deliver an integrated response to domestic and family violence that is demonstrated by clear and consistent referral pathways, protocols and joint local initiatives.

Leadership and values

- Apply YFS values, ethics, policies and procedures across all work practices. Contribute to the resolution of work-related matters by being honest, approachable and responsive.
- Contribute to continuous improvement of risk assessment, service delivery, operational guidelines, and organisational policies and procedures. Support the implementation of change and best practices.
- Participate in program service evaluations and organisational reviews and contribute to the implementation of outcomes.

Teamwork and collaboration

- Contribute to developing a cohesive team by participating in meetings, scheduled activities and team processes. Share information, communicate and present ideas in team meetings.
- Work with other team members to implement new and/or adapt existing work methods to improve service delivery. Identify and respond to changing needs of clients and/or YFS.

Professional accountability

- Use YFS and partner information and resources accountably in carrying out activities.
- Undertake work in accordance with team standards and YFS policies, protocols, and procedures, including workplace health and safety, risk management, and relevant legislative requirements.
- Work within the standards and principles of a Child Safe Organisation.

Problem solving and decision making

- Identify and resolve problems and contribute to improving working processes and procedures to improve service delivery to clients.

Administration

- Enter data, maintain records and complete documents in line with YFS document management and record keeping procedures
- Prepare relevant reports to external agencies as required.

Cultural respect

- Acknowledge the history and ongoing impacts that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people experience
- Deliver services that are person and community centred for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders and people from diverse cultural backgrounds.
